Lorraine's Piece

My challenge piece is almost finished and I hope most of you have your offering finished as well. Another project that is almost finished is our new website. Stephanie Peach and Carol Pedersen have been working hard putting in the current information. If you have any issues with the data or the site please get in touch with either Stephanie or Carol.

Quilts to be sold at the Arts Trail are progressing nicely, with some finished, and others well under way. Jenny Eagar has kindly volunteered to organize our stall, with Beryl and Judy running the Tuesday meeting proactive on the quilt making front.

Shirley Mooney's class was very well attended and some great pieces were shown at our Thursday meeting.

Many thanks to the members who turned up to do their duties for the Thursday meeting. It makes such a difference when people are willing to take their turn.

Happy quilting and patch working

Lorraine

Community Quilts

Ronnie Rutter will no longer be organising the community quilt group after October which will be the last day for this year. A big thanks goes to Ronnie for all her work in this area. She has shared her skills and given time to preparing all the fabrics and patterns. This has contributed to the production of much needed quilts which have been appreciated by the recipients in our community.

We now need someone to step forward and take on the coordination of the community quilts programme. If you are prepared to undertake this role please contact Lorraine or any of the committee. The next community quilt day will not be until February.

Symposium Trip

No doubt many of you have enrolled for classes at Symposium and will be heading to Palmerston North. However there will also be those of us who just want to visit and view the exhibitions. If there is enough interest the committee will organise a bus for a day out on Saturday 17th January. The cost will be $10.00 per person for guild members and $20.00 for friends. We will need numbers by December or you can let Judy know before then. Email jboyle@paradise.net.nz or 904 2282.

Christmas Dinner

As you will be aware from the last newsletter our Christmas function will be at Parkwood at 6.00pm on Thursday 11 December. The cost is $35.00 per person. Payment will be required no later than Tuesday 18 November which is our usual Tuesday meeting.

KAPITI ARTS TRAIL

NOVEMBER 15 AND 16 NOVEMBER

SATURDAY 9.00 TO 4.00, SUNDAY 10.00 TO 4.00

The guild is having a stall at the Bridge Club to promote the guild's activities.

We would like to show some of your pieces from classes we have run this year and members may sell fabric articles. There will be no charge for selling your articles but you will be expected to be a stall minder for a few hours over the weekend.

Articles for sale need a form with details of price etc. The forms can be obtained at the October meetings or you can e-mail or phone me to send you one online. jenny_eagar@xtra.co.nz Phone: 299-0449

The articles can be handed in at either of the October meetings or the November Thursday meeting. This applies also to the class samples. We will take good care of them.

Unsold items and class samples can be collected from the Bridge Club at 4.00pm on the Sunday or we will bring them to the next round of meetings.

To My Friend

Here's to all the chats we've yet to have, to all the rivers we've yet to cross

And to all the smiles we've yet to know.

Here's to birthdays, to perfect mornings, to all the small but moving moments our hearts will hold

Here's to lasting bonds, to experienced faces that tell beautiful stories.

Here's to meaningful yesterdays and bright tomorrows.

Here's to you my friend.

(From a card I recently received from a friend. I think they are very special words worth sharing.

Judy)
